Madelia Community Hospital Foundation Awards
2015 Healthcare Scholarships

Madelia, Minn. - Madelia Community Hospital Foundation is proud to announce the 2015 recipients of the Madelia Community Hospital Foundation scholarships. This year's recipients are Melody Colón from Madelia High School and Ethan Anderson from Lake Crystal Wellcome Memorial High School.

Colón plans to attend the University of Minnesota in the fall, studying to become a physician. Anderson also plans to become a physician. He will be attending Wheaton College.

Recipients will each receive a $500 scholarship after the successful completion of their first semester. We are very excited to award these scholarships to such well deserving students from our community. We hope these scholarships will inspire and encourage students to dedicate their lives to helping others.

These scholarships are made possible due to the generous donations from the community and faithful Madelia Community Hospital & Clinic supporters. These scholarships are offered annually as a means of demonstrating our commitment to local healthcare and our youth.
