

You are invited...

Madelia Matters Potluck

Lefse, tamales, tater tot hotdish, German potato salad...

Does your mouth water just thinking about some of the yummy dishes that you have eaten at family events over the years? At this special Madelia Matters Potluck you are invited to share recipes and the many stories that go along with them. What has your Minnesota experience been like?

Monday, May 1st

Madelia American Legion

36 1st St NW, Madelia, MN

Times:

(Come either time or both):

11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Free potluck meal and recipe share

5 - 5:30 p.m. Happy hour (for purchase)

5:30 to 7 p.m. Free potluck meal and recipe share

Bring the following:

- ▶ A favorite family dish and the recipe for the dish.
- ▶ Stories to share about the food and what it means to be a Minnesotan.
- ▶ All dishes will be documented and the recipe cards will be collected so they can be recorded and shared.

This dish potluck was designed for Madelia by social practice artist, Su Legatt. The event is more than just sharing a meal; it is an exploration into regional culture and history through art, conversation and, of course food.
